Why Robotics

Robot technologies become more and more important in all parts of everyday life, from cars to healthcare.

Getting involved in science, technology, engineering and math (STEM) through project based learning can inspire young people to pursue a technical education.

Robotics

- is a wonderful platform for learning 21st century skills;
- builds innovation, creativity and problem solving skills in young people;
- gives hand on experience in science, engineering, and computer programming;
- learns young people to work together as a team;
- is lots of fun!

Our goal is to develop the future scientists, engineers and inventors that our world needs.
Your company can be a part of this exiting endeavor!
